

DON'T FORGET

In the loom of my memories treasures are stored, memories are woven together, like interwoven threads.

Every laugh, every hug, like glittering jewels,
treasures in my heart forever present.

In the trunk of time the good and the bad moments are stored,

Like pearls of gold, they are kept in my memory.

Every memory endures, like a shining star,
In the firmament of my soul, eternally radiant.

Hugs, like wings, lift me in flight,

Advice, like lighthouses, in the darkness of doubt and grief.

In every meal shared, in every story told,
The essence of family, rooted in my soul.

For in the dance of life, in the echo of time,

family is the anchor, the refuge, the sustenance.

And in the heart of each one, like a treasure guarded,
the permanent mark of love, forever remembered.

I don't want to forget, I want to treasure

Each moment lived, without longing to change.

In the treasure of memory I keep yesterday,

Every laugh, every tear, every dawn.

I don't want to forget, I want to remember,

Every moment lived, to treasure it forever.

Because in every memory, in every sigh,
hides the essence of what I am and what I want to be.